The objective	To train participants to conceptualize a pedagogical/class session as part of a French language course.

	To introduce participants to multimedia tools and platforms for French language teaching.
Description of the activity	The activity was a practical based activity where resource persons broke down the steps into conceptualizing a pedagogical class session for the teaching of French language. Participants were also introduced to popular and useful multimedia tools and platforms that may be used in French language class.
Benefit/Key outcome of the event	Participants who were French language teachers and students aspiring to be French language teachers understood the steps to be undertaken when planning and preparing for classes taken as part of a French language course. Participants will be able to effectively plan for a French language class in keeping with steps that are recommended by the latest trends in the communicative approach. Participants will be able to incorporate multimedia tools in their French language classes for better results.
