Discipline of French and Francophone Studies

Report on participative learning "Entretien d'embauche dans le secteur du tourisme »

A mock interview was conducted for the students of MA Part 1 from the discipline of French and Francophone Studies who opted for French for Hospitality and Tourism on 29th August 2023. One of the modules in the course is centred around the analysis of a job advertisement, writing a cover letter and a French CV and appearing at an interview in the hospitality and tourism domain. The interview was coordinated by Ms Shourya Dalvi.

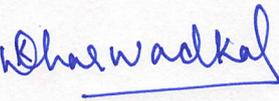

An advertisement for the post of a 'forfaitiste' was shared with the students. The students were required to analyse the requirements for the post and submit an application along with a CV for the said position and then appear at an interview. The interview was conducted by Ms Kshama Dharwadkar, Assistant Professor and PD BA French. The students had to use the vocabulary and expressions learnt in class.
